

Jarvis Christian College Hosts Groundbreaking Ceremony for New Dorm

- On July 28, 2016, Jarvis Christian College in Hawkins, Texas, completed a $25,000,000 financing through the U.S. Department of Education's HBCU Capital Financing Program.
- In addition to refinancing outstanding debt, the purpose of the loan was to fund the construction of a new student housing facility and the renovation of four residence halls.
- Rice Capital Access Program facilitated the direct loan placement, which has a 30-year term at a competitive interest rate.
- On August 18, JCC hosted a groundbreaking ceremony for its new student housing facility.

Rice Capital Access Program, a subsidiary of Rice Financial Products Company, currently serves as Designated Bonding Authority for the HBCU Capital Financing Program. Since the firm's appointment in 2009, Rice has completed $1.1 billion in financings through the program. For more information, please contact:
